BIOGRAPHY

He was born on the 6th of January 1980 in Budapest. During the primary school years he learnt playing on synthesizer. He wrote his first musics in the way of Fast Tracker, which wasn't an acceptable quality at the time. Spending a lot of years with playing music and working hard, his work slowly but surely bore its fruit. By the time he felt himself to be ready to show his works to other people, 5 years has passed. In 2000 he wrote the song "Across the sahara", wich has also played by Mo Shic.

In 2005 three of his own bakelites came out the titles of "Alterna", "Fields", and "Circular". In the meantime he appeared on several compilation albums such as "Sog Files", "Inception", "Budapest Parade 2003", "Budapest Parade 2004" and on mix albums of some world famous djs like: Hernan Cattaneo, Andrew K, DJ 19 and Tomas Haverlik.

He has started his dj career in 2003. During his only one and a half year-long career he already has played in whole Hungary. He has played many times on abroad in The Emirates, Lebanon, Egypt, Turkey, Czech Republic, Poland, Slovakia, Serbia, Romania, Bulgaria, Uk and they invite Snake back time to time. In 2005 at the voting of the Partycom Evote, 'Snake Sedrick & Khans - Circular' won the 'track of the year' title.
